

VALUATION IN SEOUL MAY TERM

WHAT IS VALUATION IN SEOUL?

Immerse yourself in the dynamic world of valuation with our 4-week FIN 374C study abroad program in Seoul, South Korea. This unique opportunity is designed for McCombs students eager to gain international experience while exploring one of Asia's leading financial hubs. The program is complemented with a series of organized cultural excursions and professional visits.

ACADEMIC TERM

May Term

PROGRAM DATES

May 7 – June 1, 2025

CREDITS

3 UT credits

ELIGIBILITY

BBA students w/ min. 2.8 GPA

PREREQUISITES

Completion of FIN 357 by program start date

PROGRAM CODE

350180

APPLY NOW*

* Application for May Term 2025 will be open between October 1st and October 15th

PROGRAM INFORMATION

ABOUT THE PROGRAM

ELIGIBILITY

This program is open to UT undergraduates with a minimum 2.5 GPA.

Please note, that meeting the minimum requirements does not guarantee acceptance into the program.

Canfield Business Honors Program: All Faculty-Led Programs are open to current CBHP students and Faculty-Led Program courses may count for Honors credit. These will count toward the student's maximum limit of 2 non-Honors courses. Contact your CBHP advisor for more information. Enrolling in a May Term or Summer Term Faculty-Led Program will not negatively impact a student's CBHP application.

SCHEDULE

Classes take place Monday-Friday (usually 9 a.m. to 1 p.m.). Students are strongly urged to refrain from making weekend travel plans until receipt of the finalized schedule. Absence from class will not be permitted.

ACADEMICS

Valuation – FIN 374C – Taught by UT faculty

FACULTY

Ari Kang

PROGRAM COORDINATOR

Questions about this program? Contact Aleksandra Wingate

FEES AND TUITION

2025 Program Fee: $ 6,200

- Program fee is subject to change

View Total Cost

- Program fees are subject to change
- For information on scholarships and financial aid, please visit our funding page. Please note that the only opportunity to apply for a May Term Program scholarship through BBA International Programs is at the time of program application.

BUDGET

For more information on the total estimated cost, including flights, meals, etc., view the Seoul study abroad budget (the budget is tentative and subject to change).

WHAT IS INCLUDED IN THE PROGRAM FEE?

- Housing
- Public transport passes
- Weekly cultural excursions
- Welcome and farewell receptions
- Visits to local companies
- 24/7 assistance from on-site staff familiar with language/culture
- Pre-departure sessions
- Re-entry guidance for recruiting

WHAT IS NOT INCLUDED IN THE PROGRAM FEE?

- UT Tuition - students enrolled in at least 12 hours during the spring semester will not pay any additional UT tuition for their May Term course
- Texas Global Fee ($75)
- Overseas Insurance
- Textbooks
- Meals
- Local transportation
- Personal expenses (toiletries, shopping, traveling, etc.)
- Flight
- Passport or visa costs (if needed)

EXCURSIONS

COMPANY VISITS

Company visits are an important component of the program. They are designed to provide students with a first-hand look at important local industries and business practices.

CULTURAL EXCURSIONS

Cultural excursions provide students with an opportunity to experience the local environment. Weekly outings, including admission fees, are coordinated on behalf of the group. These events are built into the program and participation at each event is mandatory.

Past excursions include:

- Day trip to Hwaseong Fortress
- Day trip to DMZ
- Guided Tour of the National Museum of Korea
- Cooking Class

HOUSING AND TRANSPORTATION

HOUSING

Participants will live together in a student residence.

Arrival and Check-In: May 7, 2025

Departure and Check-Out: June 1, 2025

TRANSPORTATION

Participants will book their flights to and from Seoul on their own and will arrange their own transportation from the airport to the dorm.

VISA AND PASSPORT INFORMATION

PASSPORT

Passports must be valid for at least 6 months after the end of the study abroad trip. Texas Global Passport Services can process passport applications.

U.S. passports are taking an exceptionally long time to be processed. If you are even considering a study abroad program and you do not have a passport (or your passport will expire within 6 months of the end of your program), you should apply for one now.

U.S. CITIZENS TRAVELING TO SOUTH KOREA

U.S. citizens traveling to South Korea will not require a visa if staying less than 90 days.

OTHER NATIONALITIES TRAVELING TO SOUTH KOREA

Depending on your nationality, you may or may not require a visa. Please visit the Consulate General of the Republic of Korea's website to check the requirements for your specific nationality.

It is the student's responsibility to research specific requirements for their nationality and to apply for their visa, if necessary. At the student's request, we will provide additional program-related documentation to support their visa application, such as an official letter, enrollment status at UT, housing, and insurance coverage. Students are also encouraged to request formal documentation of student enrollment status from the UT Registrar's Office and are required to notify Texas Global of their travel plans.