Carson Landsgard is the Executive Vice President of Manufacturing, Supply Chain and Logistics for H-E-B. Carson joined H-E-B in July 2017 as part of Supply Chain before transitioning to his current role, leading the Manufacturing, Warehouse and Transportation Division. Prior to H-E-B, Carson worked for Pella Corporation in Corporate and Plant Management roles for 10 years. Additionally, he worked for Target Corporation for 11 years leading their food supply chain and distribution.

Carson is a graduate of Coe College receiving his Accounting and Business Administration Degree. He received his MBA in Business Administration from Drake University.

Carson and his wife Melissa have two children, Emerson (17) and Rowan (15). As a family they enjoy traveling, being outdoors and spending time with family and friends.