Code of Conduct

As a condition of membership in the Undergraduate Business Council, all members are expected to comply with the Code of Conduct and report any known violations to the Internal Controls Officer.

Each member having upheld the University Honor Code, “The core values of the University of Texas at Austin are learning, discovery, freedom, leadership, individual opportunity, and responsibility. Each member of the university is expected to uphold these values through integrity, honesty, trust, fairness, and respect toward peers and community.” furthermore, as good citizens for our college, our university, and the community at large; hereby promise to abide by the following rules:

Internal Responsibilities:

I. Harassment in any form will not be tolerated.
II. Discrimination in any form will not be tolerated.
III. Any substances prohibited by the university are therefore forbidden at any official council activity.

External Responsibilities:

I. Communicate to others through actions, experience, and word of mouth about Business Council’s purpose, mission, and programs while upholding yourself at all times as a member of the representative body of the McCombs School of Business.

II. Member must coincide with our mission of being a vessel to help others and be continually focused on McCombs’ improvement.

Officer Responsibilities: Be open and helpful to every member of the Undergraduate Business Council, as well as, continually improve our actions, open lines of communication, and develop the Undergraduate Business Council as a whole.